PREFACE

This HANDBOOK was written by you, the student body, and merely compiled by this year's publishers.

It is the most accurate and complete method of informing yourself of the facts of Wake Forest College, including many items of interest and many things you should know.

Naturally it is not possible to catalogue every detail of the College and of college life, but you will find this HANDBOOK will be your quickest and most convenient method of finding pertinent facts when you need them. Read the constitutions of your organizations. Find out about the activities of the College and make your place in them.

Wake Forest of today is a college in a world at war, and it is looking for that day when the war will be over and it can become an even better school, as evidenced by the Enlargement Campaign which is being conducted.

You are a part of that group of folks known as Wake Forest students, and are beginning to know that spirit that is Wake Forest. You will learn more about the College and what it stands for as you take your place in the student life of Wake Forest. We sincerely believe the STUDENT HANDBOOK will help you on your way.

President of Student Body.

ABSENCES

No free cuts are allowed for freshmen and sophomores. The usual penalty will apply on all absences for freshmen and sophomores unless recognized by the Committee on Absences as emergency absentees. Each student who misses a class is required to fill out the regular form at the Dean's office giving data and explanation of absence. A junior or senior who takes three cuts for his own convenience may be penalized on them in the event of excess absences resulting from emergencies.

CHAPEL ATTENDANCE

All students are required to attend chapel Monday, Wednesday, and Friday. Penalty for inattendance is in the hands of the Executive Committee. Absences must be filed in the Dean's office same as class absences.

TRANSCRIPTS

A student is entitled to one transcript without charge. Each additional one is issued at a cost of $1.00. A transcript issued to the Bowman Gray School of Medicine carries no charge.

If a transcript is issued during any semester, the final grades for the semester are not automatically furnished to the other institution without special request near the end of the semester.

DROPPING CLASSES

If a student registers for a course, he is expected to attend the course unless he makes an official change with the registrar. Courses dropped after mid-term in which the student is failing, the course will go down as "F." A course which is dropped unofficially at any time goes down as "F."

STUDENTS ENTERING THE SERVICE

If a student finds that he has to withdraw from school during a semester, he must officially withdraw in the Dean's office so that it may be a part of his permanent record, and leave him in good standing.

Students under the necessity of withdrawal to enter armed service will get a pro rata refund on tuition.

FRESHMAN ADVISORY COMMITTEE

The purpose of this committee is to make it easier for each member of the freshman class to become a worthwhile Wake Forest student. The Committee shall consider the case of any freshman who disregards any of the rules made by the Student Council for every first year man enrolled in the freshman class. This year the Student Council is acting as the Freshman Advisory Committee.

Every freshman is hereby warned to abide by these following rules:

1. Freshmen shall at all times speak to upperclassmen and to each other when passing them on the campus or in town.

2. Freshmen must attend all pep meetings or athletic contests on the campus or have some valid excuse for not doing so. At all football games they are required to sit in a body and follow instructions of the cheerleaders.

3. Freshmen shall learn all College songs and yells.

4. Freshmen shall purchase the College HANDBOOK as provided by the Student Council.

ART MUSEUM

Wake Forest College is extremely fortunate to have on its campus one of the best collections of art in the south. This collection was given by Dr. Thomas Jackson Simmons, alumnus of Wake Forest.

The Simmons Art Museum, on first floor of the Johnson Building, is open each Sunday afternoon from 3 till 5 o'clock. Prof. A. L. Aycock, curator, is present to point out the items of interest.

DEBATE ACTIVITIES

Prof. A. L. Aycock is adviser to the Debate Squad, and each year the group journeys to tournaments over the south and comes home laden down with trophies.

Many of the old-guard debaters are gone now, leaving the field wide open for new men. The squad has openings for several new men.

These students who achieve distinction in speech work are taken into membership of Pi Kappa Delta.

LITERARY SOCIETIES

The Philomathesian and Euzelian Literary Societies are the two oldest campus organizations, which accounts in a large measure for the wide reputation of Wake Forest men as being good speakers.

Each fall both societies hold smokers and socials to which they invite all new students. Last year societies staged a come-back, after several years of half-hearted participation. Maybe the days of gas rationing will re-establish the societies to their rightful place of prominence in campus activities.

The Phi's and Eu's meet every Monday night at 7 o'clock in their respective society halls on the third floor of Wait Hall. Each fall they hold a Society Day and each spring a Founder's Day speaking contest, at which events the two groups vie for top honors.

LITTLE THEATER

The Wake Forest College Little Theater is one of the youngest and most active campus organizations. The group presents a major production each semester, with all of the work from directing to staging to acting done by the students themselves.

Membership in the Little Theater is obtained through the point system. The minimum number of points for membership is forty, for pledgeship five. Points are distributed and judged on the following basis:

Major Production		Minor Production
Student Director	30-40	Student Director	15-25
Stage Manager	15-35	Stage Manager	10-20
Leading Role	25-30	Leading Role	10-15
Minor Role	10-25	Minor Role	5-10
Committeemen	0-20	Committeemen	0-15

When an individual has earned as much as 60 points, he is eligible for Alpha Psi Omega, national honorary dramatic fraternity.

MUSICAL ACTIVITIES

Music now plays a more vital part in the lives of Wake Forest students than it ever has before. Music has been emphasized on this campus as a part of its tradition.

Every fair evening records are played over the loud-speaking system from 6:15 till 7:45, and the Carnegie Record Set is open at 7 o'clock each night except Tuesday. A Sunday afternoon record concert is given from 4 till 5:30 over the loud speaker. Each spring an all-campus sing is sponsored, which is entered into on competitive basis by most of the College organizations.

The Glee Club is made up of mixed voices and renders a great service to the College. A concert Band and a Little Symphony Orchestra round out the list of organizations for student participation.

These three groups present concerts at intervals throughout the year, and all combine for Christmas vespers, which is one of the most beautiful services held on the campus during the year.

PUBLICATIONS

Publications Row in the Student Center is the busiest center of activity the year round in the College. Long after midnight tired, droopy, aspiring writers may be seen wending their ways home. Each week the official student newspaper, Old Gold and Black, is published, carrying a survey of the campus. For years this paper has been recognized as one of the best collegiate papers in the south.

All year long plans, hopes, aspirations and perspiration will go into putting out The Howler, which carries a record of the year for the College. In recent years this publication has won top honors for the whole nation.

Publications are governed by the Publications Board.

FRATERNITIES

This year there are six active fraternities on the campus, which go about their business of bringing together a closely knit group of men who work collectively to build the ideal college student.

These groups take the lead in furnishing social entertainment for the campus, beginning with "rush season" and lasting through a series of dances and house parties.

The Greek-letter men have moved back to Simmons Dorm this year.

Fraternity life is governed by the Pan-Hellenic Council made up of representatives from all of the active fraternities.

THE HONOR SYSTEM

The Honor System at Wake Forest simply means that every man is on his honor as a gentleman to conduct himself in a manner to be expected of a gentleman and to report violations of this code of ethics on the part of others. It has grown up in the life of our College that men are more good than bad and, given an equal opportunity, will select the right in preference to the wrong; that self government is necessary in an institution training for citizenship in a democratic state, and individual responsibility adds effort and interest on the part of the individual. All students are on their honor to abstain from such acts as cheating, hazing, stealing and gambling; in other words, they are on their honor to do the right thing at all times and to abstain from the wrong.

The whole effort of those interested in student government at Wake Forest is bent toward making this a better place to spend four years. Let us cooperate, therefore, in the movement for better student government, better student life and a more ideal place in which to work.

CONSTITUTION OF THE WOMAN'S DIVISION OF THE WAKE FOREST COLLEGE STUDENT GOVERNMENT

PREAMBLE

The purpose of this organization shall be to regulate all matters pertaining distinctively to the life of the women of Wake Forest College not under the jurisdiction of the Faculty; to increase a sense of individual responsibility; to further a spirit of unity among the women of the College; and to cooperate with the Faculty in creating and maintaining high ideals for the women of the College.

COLLEGE SONGS

One of the first requirements of a freshman is to learn the College songs, and be able to sing them. They are sung, not only at football games and special meetings, but whenever a group of Wake Forest men get together. These songs have been sung by Wake Forest men for so many years that people have forgotten who wrote them, but to the singers, these songs mean Wake Forest.

DEAR OLD WAKE FOREST

Dear old Wake Forest!
Thine is a noble name;
Thine is a glorious fame,
Constant and true.
We give thee of our praise,
Adore thine ancient days,
Sing thee our humble lays,
Mother, so dear.
Dear old Wake Forest.
Mystic thy name to cheer;
Be thou our guardian near,
For'er and aye.

We bow before thy shrine,
Thy brow that lays entwine,
All honor now be thine,
Mother, today.

HERE'S TO WAKE FOREST

Oh, here's to Wake Forest, a glass of the finest,
Red, ruddy Rhenish filled up to the brim!
Her sons they are many, unrivaled by any;
With hearts o'erflowing we will sing her hymn.

(Chorus)

Rah, Rah, Wake Forest, Rah!
Old Alma Mater's sons we are;
We'll herald her story and die for her glory.
Old Gold and Black is ever waving high.
As frosh we adore her, as sophs we explore her,
And carve our names upon her ancient walls;
As juniors patrol her, as seniors extol her,
And weep to leave for'er her sacred halls.

(Chorus)

Though fortune forsake us and fate o'ertake us,
We'll ne'er forget our dear old college days,
And o'er memory's treasure we'll drink without measure,
And sing fore'er our Alma Mater's praise.

(Chorus)

GENTLE MOTHER

Words by Charles P. Weaver, '06

Music by Hubert McNeill Poteat, '04

Old Wake Forest, gentle Mother,
We, thy children, joyful sing;
Join our voices with each other,
Praise today to thee we bring;
Though we hail from head-lands, mountains,
Though of many creeds we be,
Though we've drunk from many fountains,
We are one in love to thee;
Ever onward, ever upward,
Lead us gently by the hand,
Ever, gentle Mother, onward,
Lead us still, thy loyal band.

Alma Mater, we invoke thee,
Let us see thy shining face;
Let us feel, we now implore thee,
All thy true, enduring grace;
With thy wisdom, gentle Mother,
Give us eyes that we may see
Truth our goal, our sacred duty;
Truth alone can make us free.
On thy banner ever glorious
Truth forever shall appear;
Crown thy children's hopes victorious
With the love that casts out fear.
